DAN'S WIFE.

Up in early morning light, Sweeping, dusting, "setting right," Oiling all the household springs.

Sewing buttons, tying strings, Telling Bridget what to do, Mending rips in Johnny's shoe, Running up and down the star.

Eating as she can by chance,

Giving husband kindly glanes Toiling, working, busy life,

"Smart woman, Dan's wife."

Dan comes home at fall of night,

Children meet him at the door

"Busy times with us at home

Busy, noisy, weary life,

Dan reads on and falls asleep-

See the woman softly creep; Baby rests at last, poor dear.

Tired eyes and weary brain, Side with darting, ugly pain; "Never mind, 'twill pass away," She must work, but never play;

Closed piano, unused books

Dan's wife.

Up-stairs, tossing to and fro.

Bridget loiters-dinner's cold,

Lacking one dear patient face.

steady hands, so weak, but true

Hands that knew just what to do, Never knowing rest or play, Folded now—and laid away; Work of six in one short life,

Shattered woman, Dan's wife.

done here.

Our California Letter.

SAN BARNERDINO, CALIFORNIA, October 18th, 1874.

Done the walks to easy nooks, Brightness faded out of life,

Saddened woman.

Fever holds the woman low; Children wander, free to play When and where they will, to-day;

Dan looks anxious, cross and old; Household screws are out of place,

Not a word her heart to cheer; Mendir g-basket full to top, Stockings, shirt and little frock,

Support done—Dan reads at ease, Happy Dan, but one to please; Children must be put in bed—

All the little prayers are said; Little shoes are placed in rows, Bed clothes tucked o'er little toes,

Home so cheerful, neat and bright,

Puli bim in and look him o'er, Wite asks "How the work has gone?"

Tying baby in her chair, Cutting meat and spreading bread, Dishing out so much per head, ATVESTIGING SATES MADE STOWN ON APPLICATION THE BATES we have established for advertising will be strictly adhered to in every insance. They are as low as charged by a majority of the pupers in the West, and as low as any paper farmished on a firm and lasting basis, with a large circulation, will do business. We think a siness men can get value received by advertising with us. We ask no one to patronize us out of charity, and do not want a man's money unlesse give him value received. We could easily fill our columns with foreign advertisements, hemotogs, patent medicines, etc., at less than our gular rates. But we hope that we never will be sampelled to do so. Nothing speaks so well for a lown and the enterprise of its citizens—its growth and prosperity—as the columns of the local paper eli filled with home advertisements of homeracle and lutsiness. We shall charge all alike, oreign and local, and shall not deviate from our stablished rates. No display type larger that ica will be used in these columns, and in no case will cuts, or black and unseenly illustrations be sumitted into this paper.
